

MOTOR NEURONE DISEASE MDT STUDY DAY

20 November 2026

|       |                                     |                                                             |
|-------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30  | Registration                        |                                                             |
| 9:00  | Karakia, Welcome & Housekeeping     |                                                             |
| 9:15  | New Developments in MND. Q & A      | Dr James Cleland                                            |
| 10:00 | The MND Journey, Q & A              | Dr Alison Charleston                                        |
| 10:45 | Morning Tea                         |                                                             |
| 11:15 | Respiratory support                 | Dr Will Good                                                |
| 11:45 | Respiratory physiotherapy           | Sarah Mooney                                                |
| 12:15 | Respiratory / NIV support           | Maree Arvidson                                              |
| 12:45 | Panel discussion                    | Dr Will Good, Dr Clair KingSarah Mooney, Maree Arvidson |
| 13:00 | Lunch                               |                                                             |
| 13:30 | Living with someone with MND        | John and Hayley                                             |
| 14:00 | Speech and language Therapy and MND | Biddy Robb                                                  |
| 14:30 | Afternoon Tea                       |                                                             |
| 14:45 | Gastro and MND (pre/post PEG Mx)    | Fiona Williams                                              |
| 15:30 | Dying with dignity                  | Di Winstanley                                               |
| 16:15 | Panel Discussion                    | Chaired by Dr Clair King                                    |
| 16:45 | Finish                              |                                                             |